

PARKBENCH

A photograph of a park bench, a lamppost, and a large tree at dusk or dawn, with a body of water in the background. The scene is captured in a sepia or aged tone. The tree is on the right, its branches spreading across the top. The lamppost is in the center, with three spherical lights. The bench is on the left, partially obscured by shadows. The water is visible in the background, reflecting the light from the sky.

Parkbench Staff

The 1979-80 school year at Westview was a totally new and different experience. It was obvious that the school spirit rose dramatically. The production of Bye Bye Birdie, and the sales of Parkbench were beyond compare.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Trevor McCleery, the Benchy Staff and Mr. Baird (Chief Benchy) for their hard work, creativity, and patience throughout the production of Parkbench.

I would also like to thank Mrs. Mayerson for the use of her office. Mr. Hoes and Mr. Wrigglesworth for their help in photography, Mr. Nerlich and his class for their help in advertisement and Mr. Jenkins for being our new addition to Parkbench.

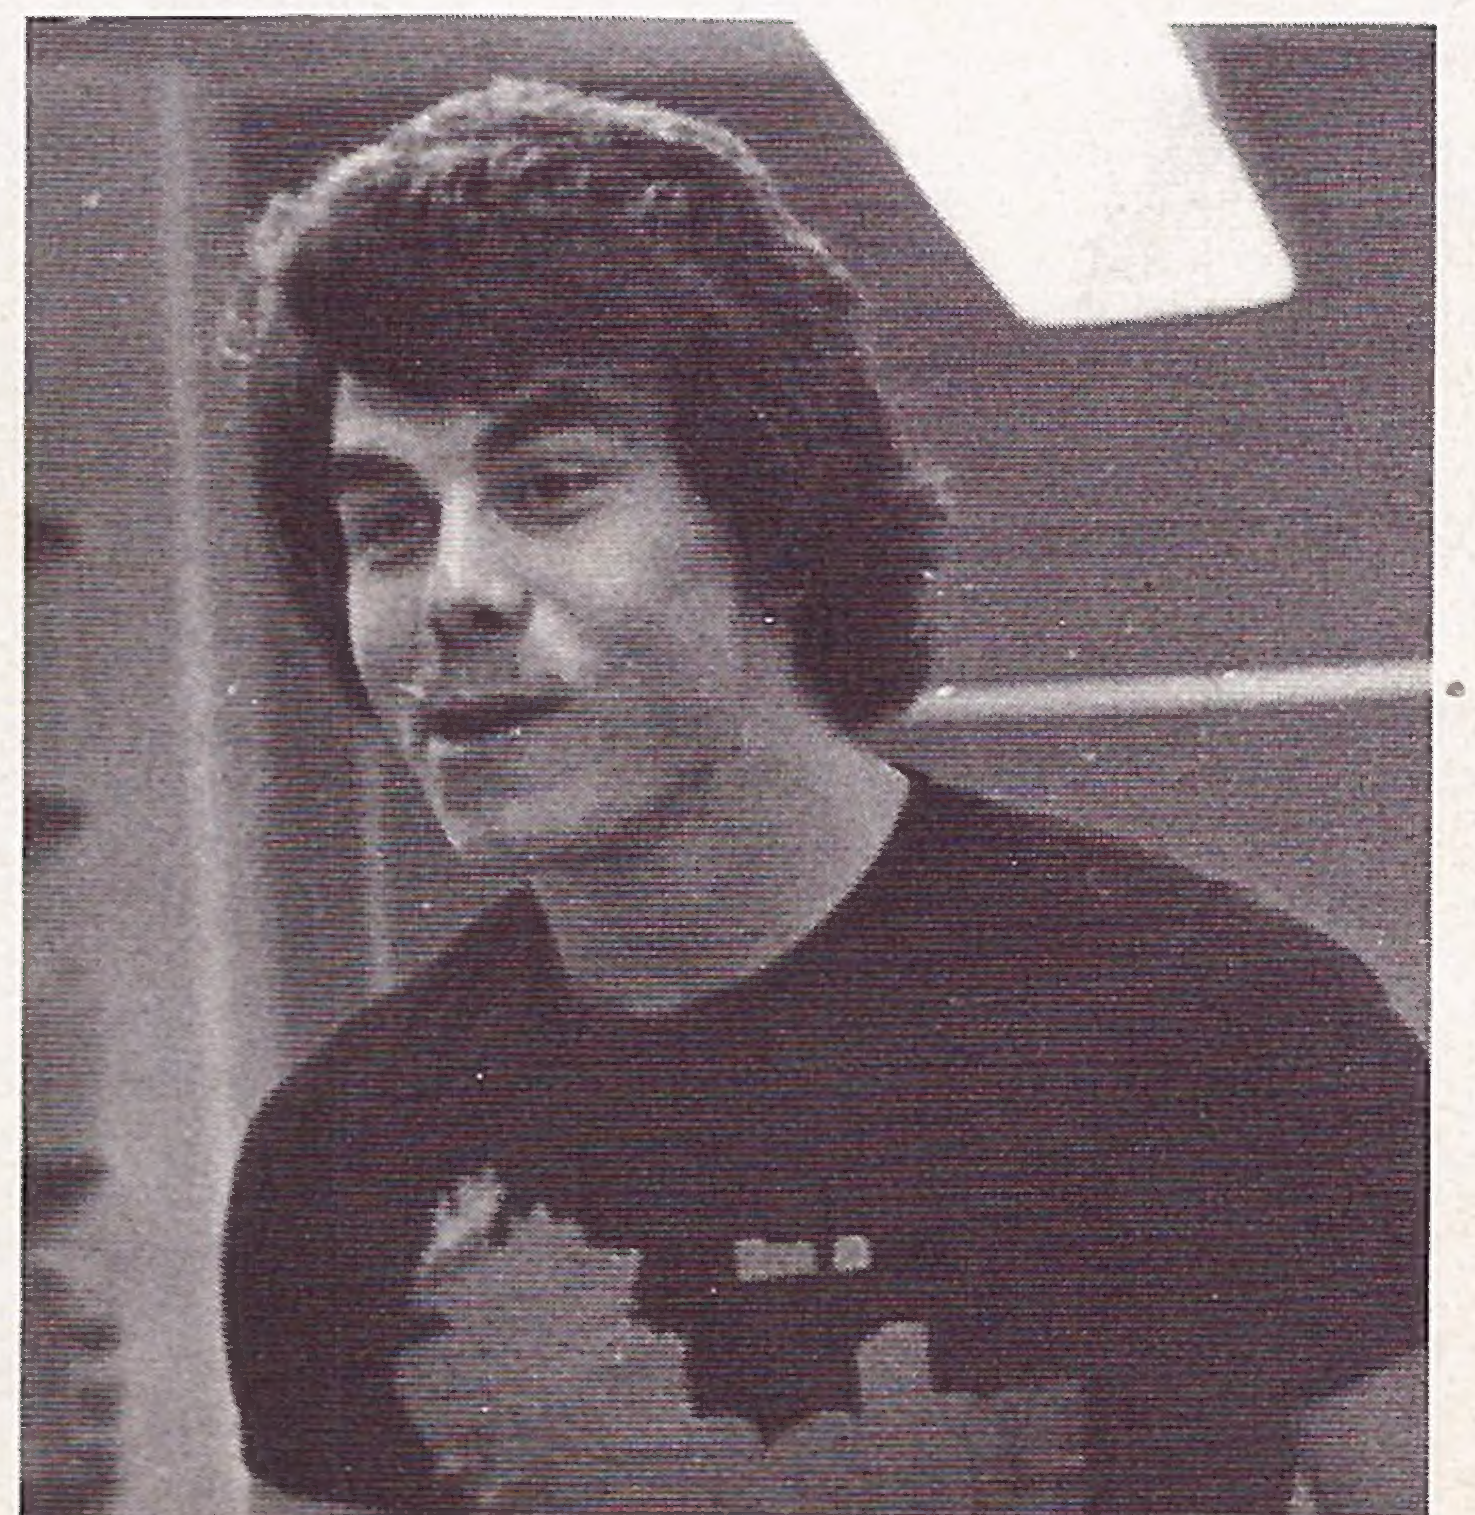

P.S. Marisa, eat your heart out!!

the 70's

*During which we Became
(a) Older, (b) Wiser,
(c) Sadder, or (d) Better.*

Take your Pick

BIG MAC, DISCO, CANADA-MOSCOW HOCKEY, THE CN TOWER, TRUDEAU. Known only as the 70's. Each of the mentioned on this page represent in some way the decade of the 70's. The items you read about on the next two pages also represent the 70's and they are all special to each and every one of you. It is not important whether a Big Mac is a reminder of the year you worked at McDonald's or how many times you took double lunch so you could go there. What is important is that it stirs a memory, a memory which will inspire more memories of the 70's. As you look at these pages ten or even more years from now you will be reminded of many things. These memories will be different for each of you but they will have one thing in common, the time during which all of them took place, your school year. As you turn the page and look back through the years think of the events you participated in and the accomplishments you made, the changes you have survived and the friends you have met, for this adds up to the person you have become during our life at the 70's.

TECH

Group effort on a test.

The technical programs at Westview help to develop skills in technical subjects.

Specific goals aimed for students in technical subjects include several of the following:

- to develop a personal awareness in technical fields such as girls auto, woodwork, etc.
- to reach a level of competence to enter the job market at a trainee level. e.g. draftsman, auto service.
- to become an apprentice in various trades, e.g. auto mechanic, electrician, machinist, sheet metal worker.
- to continue technological studies at the post-secondary level such as community colleges and universities.

The overall perspective of technical programs at Westview is to develop a student's confidence and self-awareness in a technological society.

CHIARA TAGLIERI: AMB.: To understand what the !@ * is going on in Algebra. P.P.: Essays. M.W.: Hearing Mr. Wriggs yell in the hall during Math. S.A.: Meeting G.G. F.S.: Don't bother me! Dear Chiara: What does G.G. stand for? Gorgeous George?

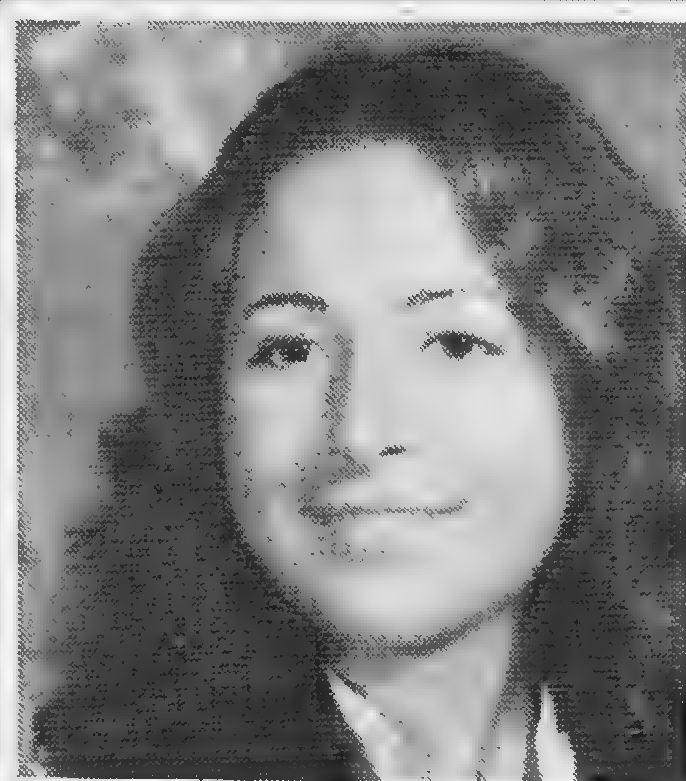

NANDA TIERI: AMB.: To love, travel, and write. P.P.: Not being hustled by Robert DeNiro. S.A.: Refusing Prince Charles' marriage proposal. M.W.: Mrs. S., Mr. D., and Joe and Anna's immoral fantasies. Dear Nanda: You'd make a good author.

EZLEY TIMM: AMB.: To be the first coloured astronaut. P.P.: Slow-pokes, when I'm in a hurry. M.W.: Sachs' 1st Calculus test. S.A.: Beating Fleming in volleyball. Dear Ezley: Will you be able to play volleyball on the moon?

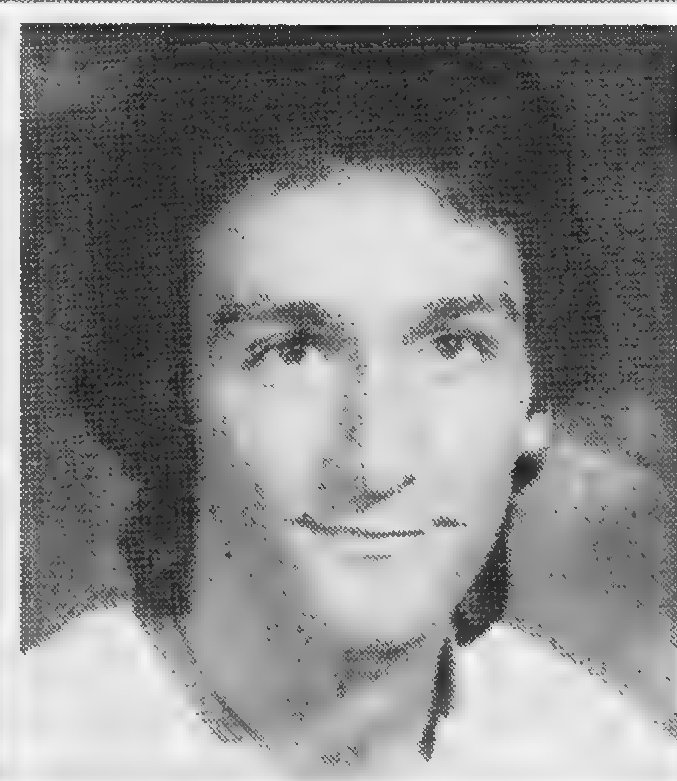

ROSA TRIMMELITI: AMB.: To boldly go where no woman has gone. P.P.: Many pains. M.W.: Spares and H.T. S.A.: Being the one and only PDQ. F.S.: So what!! Dear Rosa: We hope you like the smell of a man's locker room.

ADRIANA VALENTINI: AMB.: To find a reasonable meaning to life. P.P.: Taking life as a joke. M.W.: Those who have made my days happy. S.A.: Introducing Miss Piggy, and Parkbench '78-'80. Dear Adri: Good luck in your search.

JOHN VELOCCI: AMB.: To get the challenger started. P.P.: Heather's stomach constantly growling. M.W.: Losing 4 calculators, 1 sweater and my car keys. S.A.: Laughing through an exam. Dear John: Is Heather's bark worse than her bite?

HAZEL WASHINGTON: AMB.: To become an R.N. P.P.: The messy caf. M.W.: Dorset, woodpeckers, and nice teachers. S.A.: Making it to Gr. 13. F.S.: Are you crazy, 'cause I'm a wild and crazy gal! Dear Hazel: Just how wild and crazy are you?

CINZIA ZANCHETTIN: AMB.: To pursue a career in the language field. M.W.: Having created a closeness with the language teachers. S.A.: Having survived to Gr. 13. Dear Cinzia: Beware of the cows in the middle of the field.

JOE ZANGARI: AMB.: To be a millionaire. P.P.: Getting back an essay from Mrs. Mayerson. M.W.: The clean cafeteria. Dear Joe: When you get enough money, you can buy your essays.

JAQUELINE ZWEERMAN: AMB.: To be a social worker. P.P.: Waking up to go to school. M.W.: Spares. S.A.: Graduating from St. Basil's. F.S.: Oh, ! *$. Dear Jaqueline: Aren't you glad you're at Westview now with all those spares?

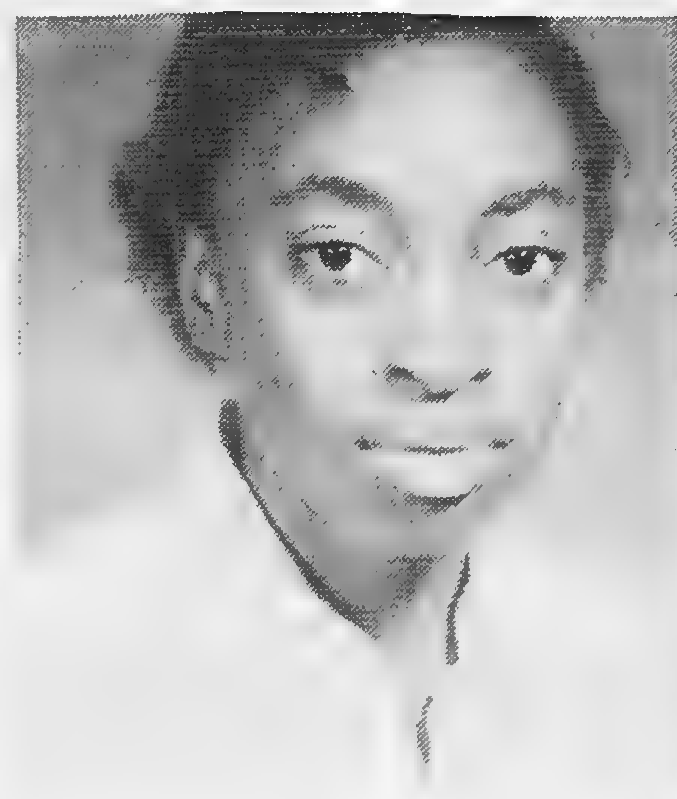

JOSIE SANSALONE: AMB.: To work with children. P.P.: Tom's irregular behaviour. M.W.: Talking about someone and finding them standing behind me . . . LISTENING. S.A.: Making it — to grade 13. Dear Josie: Are you going to stop making it . . . after gr. 13?

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

Mr. K. Hills

Mr. K. Hills, a veteran of 10 years at Bathurst Heights S.S., transferred to W.C.S.S. at the start of the school year 1979-80. Between 1968 and 1969, Mr. Hills was the Head of History at Downsview S.S. In 1969 he was promoted to a vice-principalship at Bathurst and since 1972 has been their Principal. He has been a staff member of the North York Leadership course for students, a staff advisor to the Bathurst student council and has coached many Bathurst football teams to successful seasons. As a public speaker he is in great demand to present topics ranging from declining enrolment to vandalism in the schools. He also is an executive member of the Ontario Secondary School Headmasters Council which is a feather in the cap of the North York school system. Mr. Hills, we welcome you to Westview Centennial and wish you well in the future.

FACULTY

On the following pages you will find photographs of the Westview staff and beside their names a Zodiac sign. The idea of including the Zodiac sign was to reveal the true nature of each teacher. For each sign our description is partially accurate and partially humorous. The specific characteristics were taken from an astrology source book and the comments which follow were composed by the yearbook staff.

If for some reason these comments offend you then we apologize. This was not our intention. You may find that the teacher who appeared to be a grumpy old bear is actually characterized to be as gentle as a lamb. (Perhaps he or she is a good actor.) Read on you'll see what we mean.

Capricorns are responsible, patient and resourceful people although sometimes being narrow-minded and stingy. They have been known to wait forever in line for a Wally burger and save the same piece of chalk all year long. They even charge rent for borrowing pencils in class. They believe that school is a student's justification for holidays. They wear the same clothes all year and are seen with a perpetual cloud of chalk dust around themselves.

Aquarians are friendly, scientific and versatile people although they are sometimes eccentric and aloof. They can cut up a frog while boiling water at the same time. They spend much of their lives on top of teacher's desks in order to get above the general rabble. Don't fall off - it's a long way down from the third to the first floor at Westview. They have many idiosyncrasies such as; marking each answer of your exam with a different colour and talking to test tubes as if something inside were going to answer.

Piscines are kind, gentle and imaginative people while sometimes showing signs of untidiness and unreliability. At Westview they often visit the pool area thus showing an addictiveness to chlorine gas. They like to hide their desks by seeing how much paper can be piled on top. Ring around the collar is a likely problem. Remember, a fish out of water is like a teacher running out of homework assignments. Water fountains are a favorite meeting place.

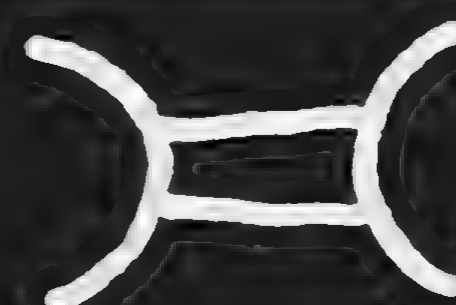

Aries are generous, independent and adventurous people but may also be impatient and selfish. They are the only teachers who will venture into the caf. during lunch periods. Watch out for flying french fries! In class they expect you to always be on time and love to give tests on a day when you already have three. How can you get from the pool to the third floor in 3 minutes, fully dressed and with your hair dry? In fact, how can you be generous and selfish at the same time?

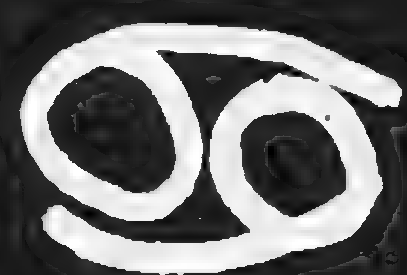

Taurines are reliable, persistent and practical people although they sometimes are lazy and boring. They have been known to fall asleep during their own lessons. When they are awakened they will always start the lesson over again having a keep trying until you get it right syndrome. The information from their class usually has a practical application although sometimes better represents the animal which symbolizes their sign. Remember, a sitting bull can charge at any minute.

Geminis are adaptable, logical and lively people sometimes being cunning and two-faced. Having two faces is always helpful if you have to sign out before 3:15 p.m. but is not very logical when shaving or putting on makeup. Sounds like Mr. Spock. They like Rock and Disco music and have adapted their clothes to both music types - skinny, leather ties. Skippers Beware, they will lay awake at night thinking of ways to set a trap.

Cancereans are sensitive, thrifty and patriotic although sometimes over-emotional and moody. they will sing O Canada with their class some mornings just before leading them in 5 minutes of calisthenics. Other mornings their mood changes and they sleep through the announcements while their class plays cards. They discipline all students at the beginning of class in order to save time later on. Beware of crabby teachers.

Leonines are creative, organized and magnanimous (bet you don't know what that means) people who are also snobbish and conceited. They are conceited because they know what magnanimous means. They are lions - much like the one we saw in the Wizard of Oz last year. You can hear them roar in the halls if you happen to go to your locker at the wrong time. They seldom say Hi but are known to growl a lot at their feet. Their favorite T.V. actor is Morris the Cat.

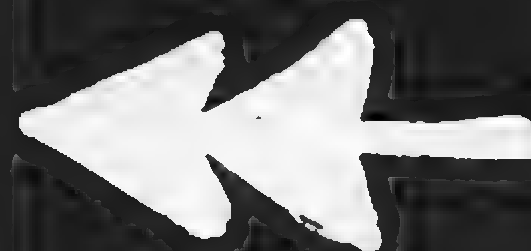

Virgos are ambitious, intellectual and prudent people sometimes being fussy, hypocritical or absent-minded. Their ambitions include; doing the early morning inspirational speech on the announcements, supervising the smoking area on every snowy day and teaching snooker in the staff room. They tend to forget that they are fussy and wear different coloured socks but when a student forgets something they get upset. These types have even been known to forget at what time or in what place a class is to be held.

Libras are charming, popular and passionate people sometimes being fickle and self-indulgent. They love the learning resource centre and have been found there reading the Sex Lives of the Muppets over and over again. They have been known to wear buttons on which you can see their own picture. Keep your distance - they love to nibble earlobes and usually have a fetish for toes, especially their own. They win the fickle finger of fate award for being the most charming teachers on staff.

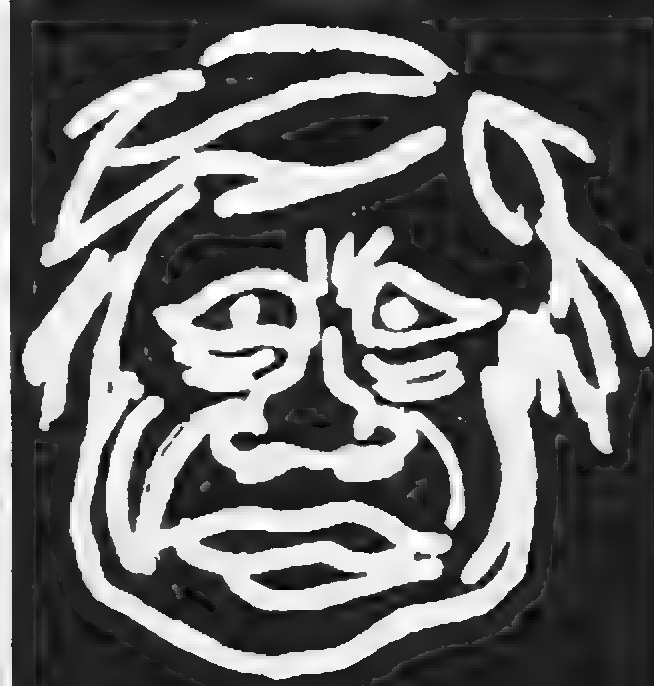

Scorpians are purposeful, subtle and disarming people who sometimes are obstinate and suspicious. Scorpians like dry, desert like conditions. Their classrooms are air conditioned in the winter and heated in the spring. Their sting can be fatal. They like to mark tests at the front of the class and laugh every once in a while, reading your answer aloud for everyone to hear. They believe that being stubborn is being tough whereas it really is just failing to admit your wrong.

Sagittarians are honest, cheerful and enthusiastic people although at times they are reckless and cynical. These people walk around with a bad case of the smiles - even at 7:00 a.m. on a dull and dreary day. While moving carts of books down the halls they tend to spend and have been known to run down all students in their way. During classes they like to tell jokes but usually they are the only ones to laugh. Watch out for people who always seem to be happy - you can't trust them!

Etceteras are teachers who either refused or failed to give us their Zodiac Sign. We feel sorry for these people who missed all of the fun. They must be either forgetful or very self-conscious about their sign. Luckily most of our teachers at Westview co-operated with us on this project and thus we hope that it has been a success.

Morlocks are a strange and wonderful breed. Strange in that they live underground and wonderful in that they do all the hard work - probably trying to burrow out. They are cannibalistic and grotesque. It sounds as if they are doomed to certain parts of the school for life.

TEACHER'S

Welcome to the twilight zone.

Yes, my wife knows.

But this IS normal.

Fish out of water.

Suzy, typewriters weren't meant for that.

Me and the little Mrs.

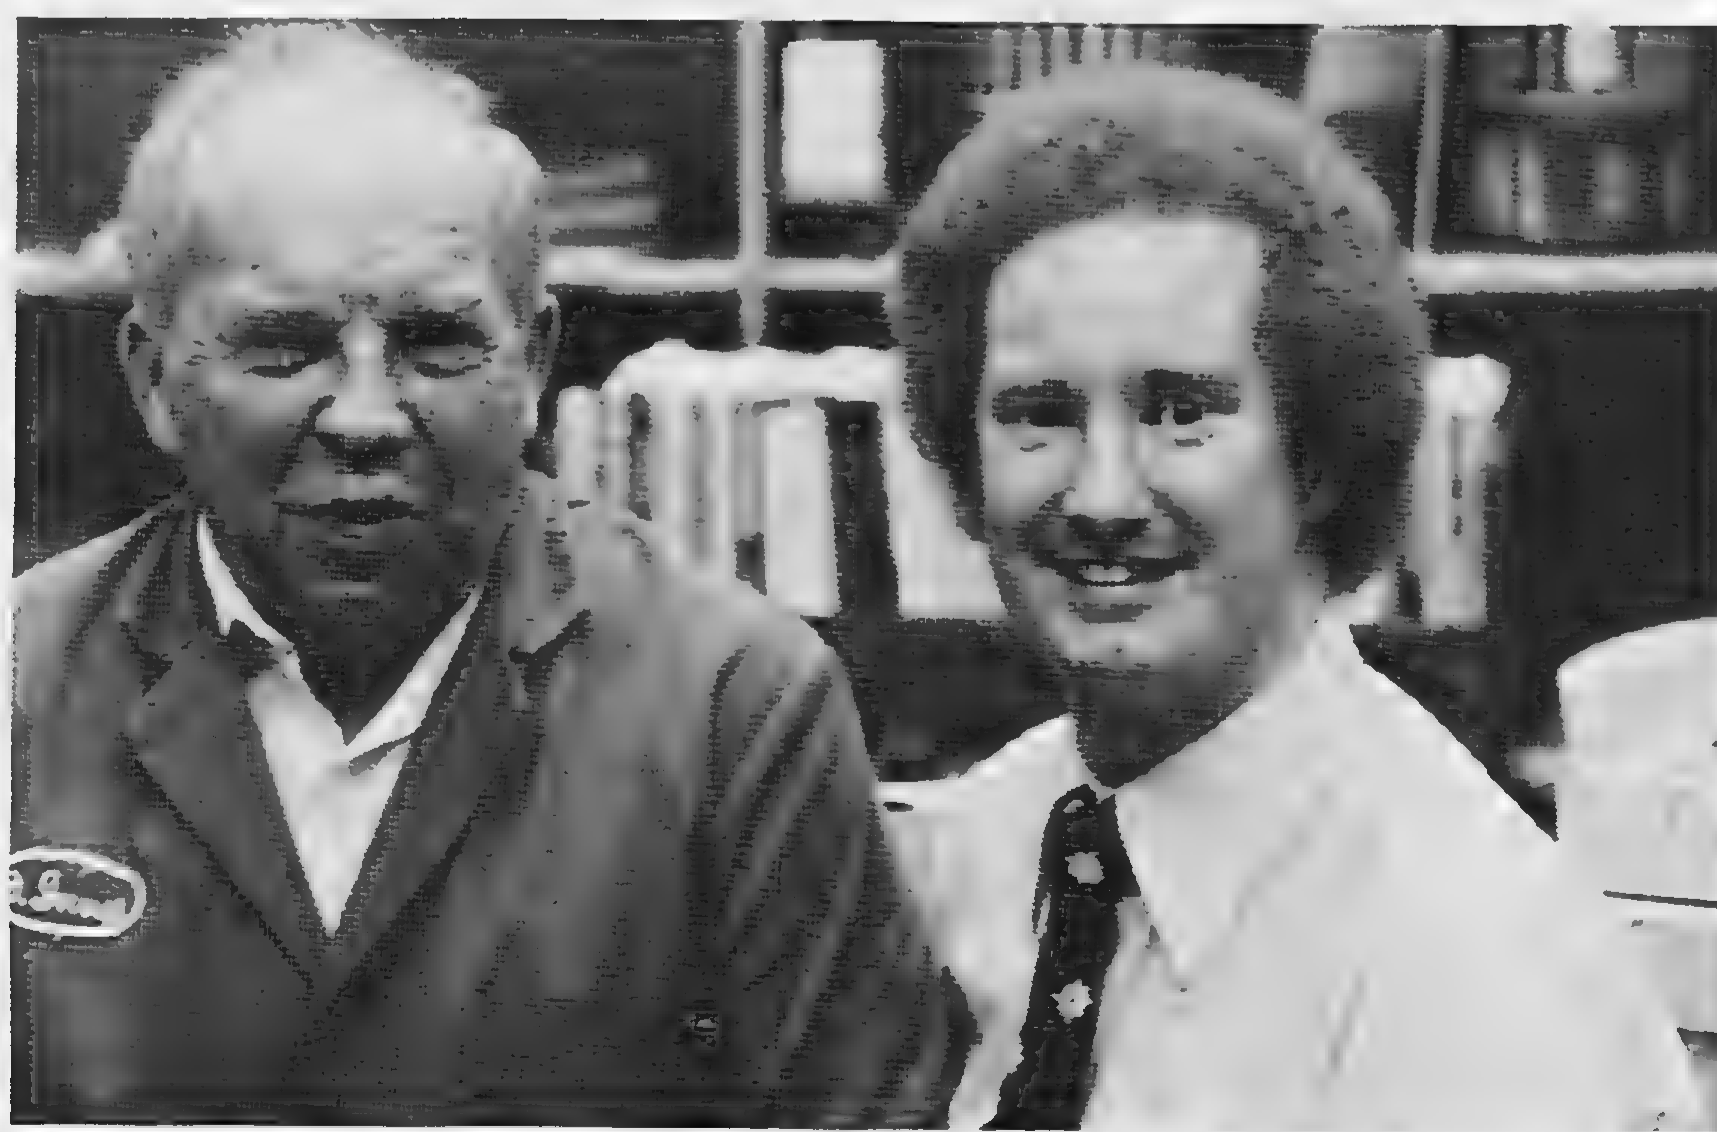

That's disgusting!

I've spilt my coffee.

Alias Barney Rubble.

Who's the real dummy?

Where ARE those tests?

My mother dresses me . . . she shops at Elks!

Great moments in music.

Lover lips.

Good-bye CRUEL world.

Make a wish.

What was that?

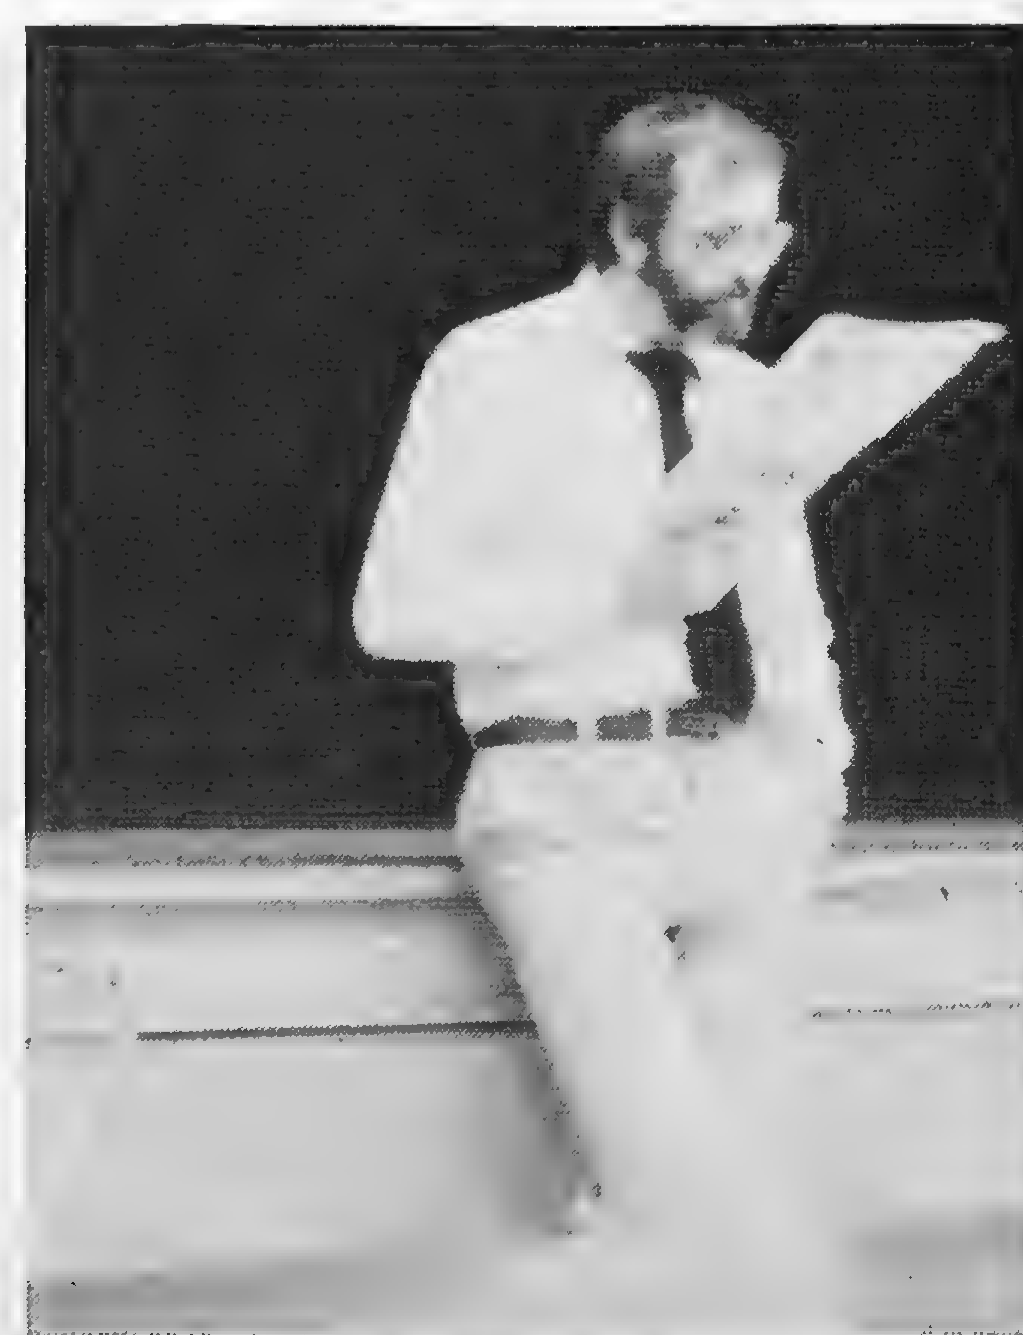

Wood worm.

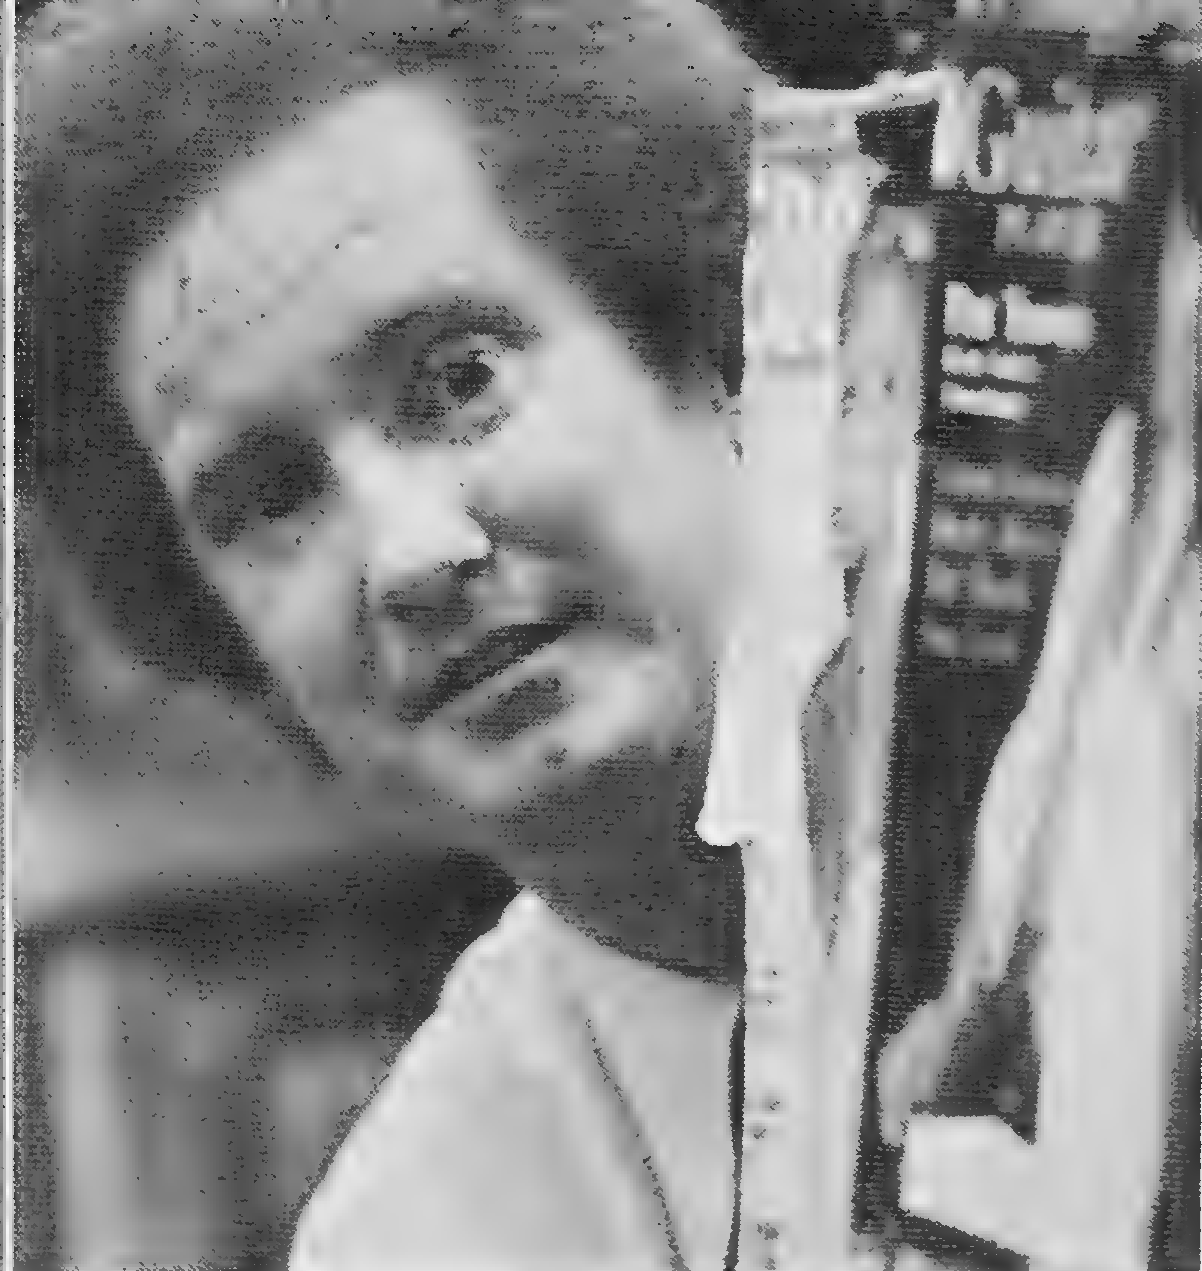

If Nixon can do it, so can I.

Work the room, Mr. Bell.

Has Mrs. Samuel gone?

These @ # $* machines never work!

You want your credit?!?

I grew these all by myself.

Hi, Big Boy!

My mother never explained that to me.

Stop breathing so heavily, Mr. DeVita.

I wonder if Stradivarius started this way?

I learned this in Teachers' College.

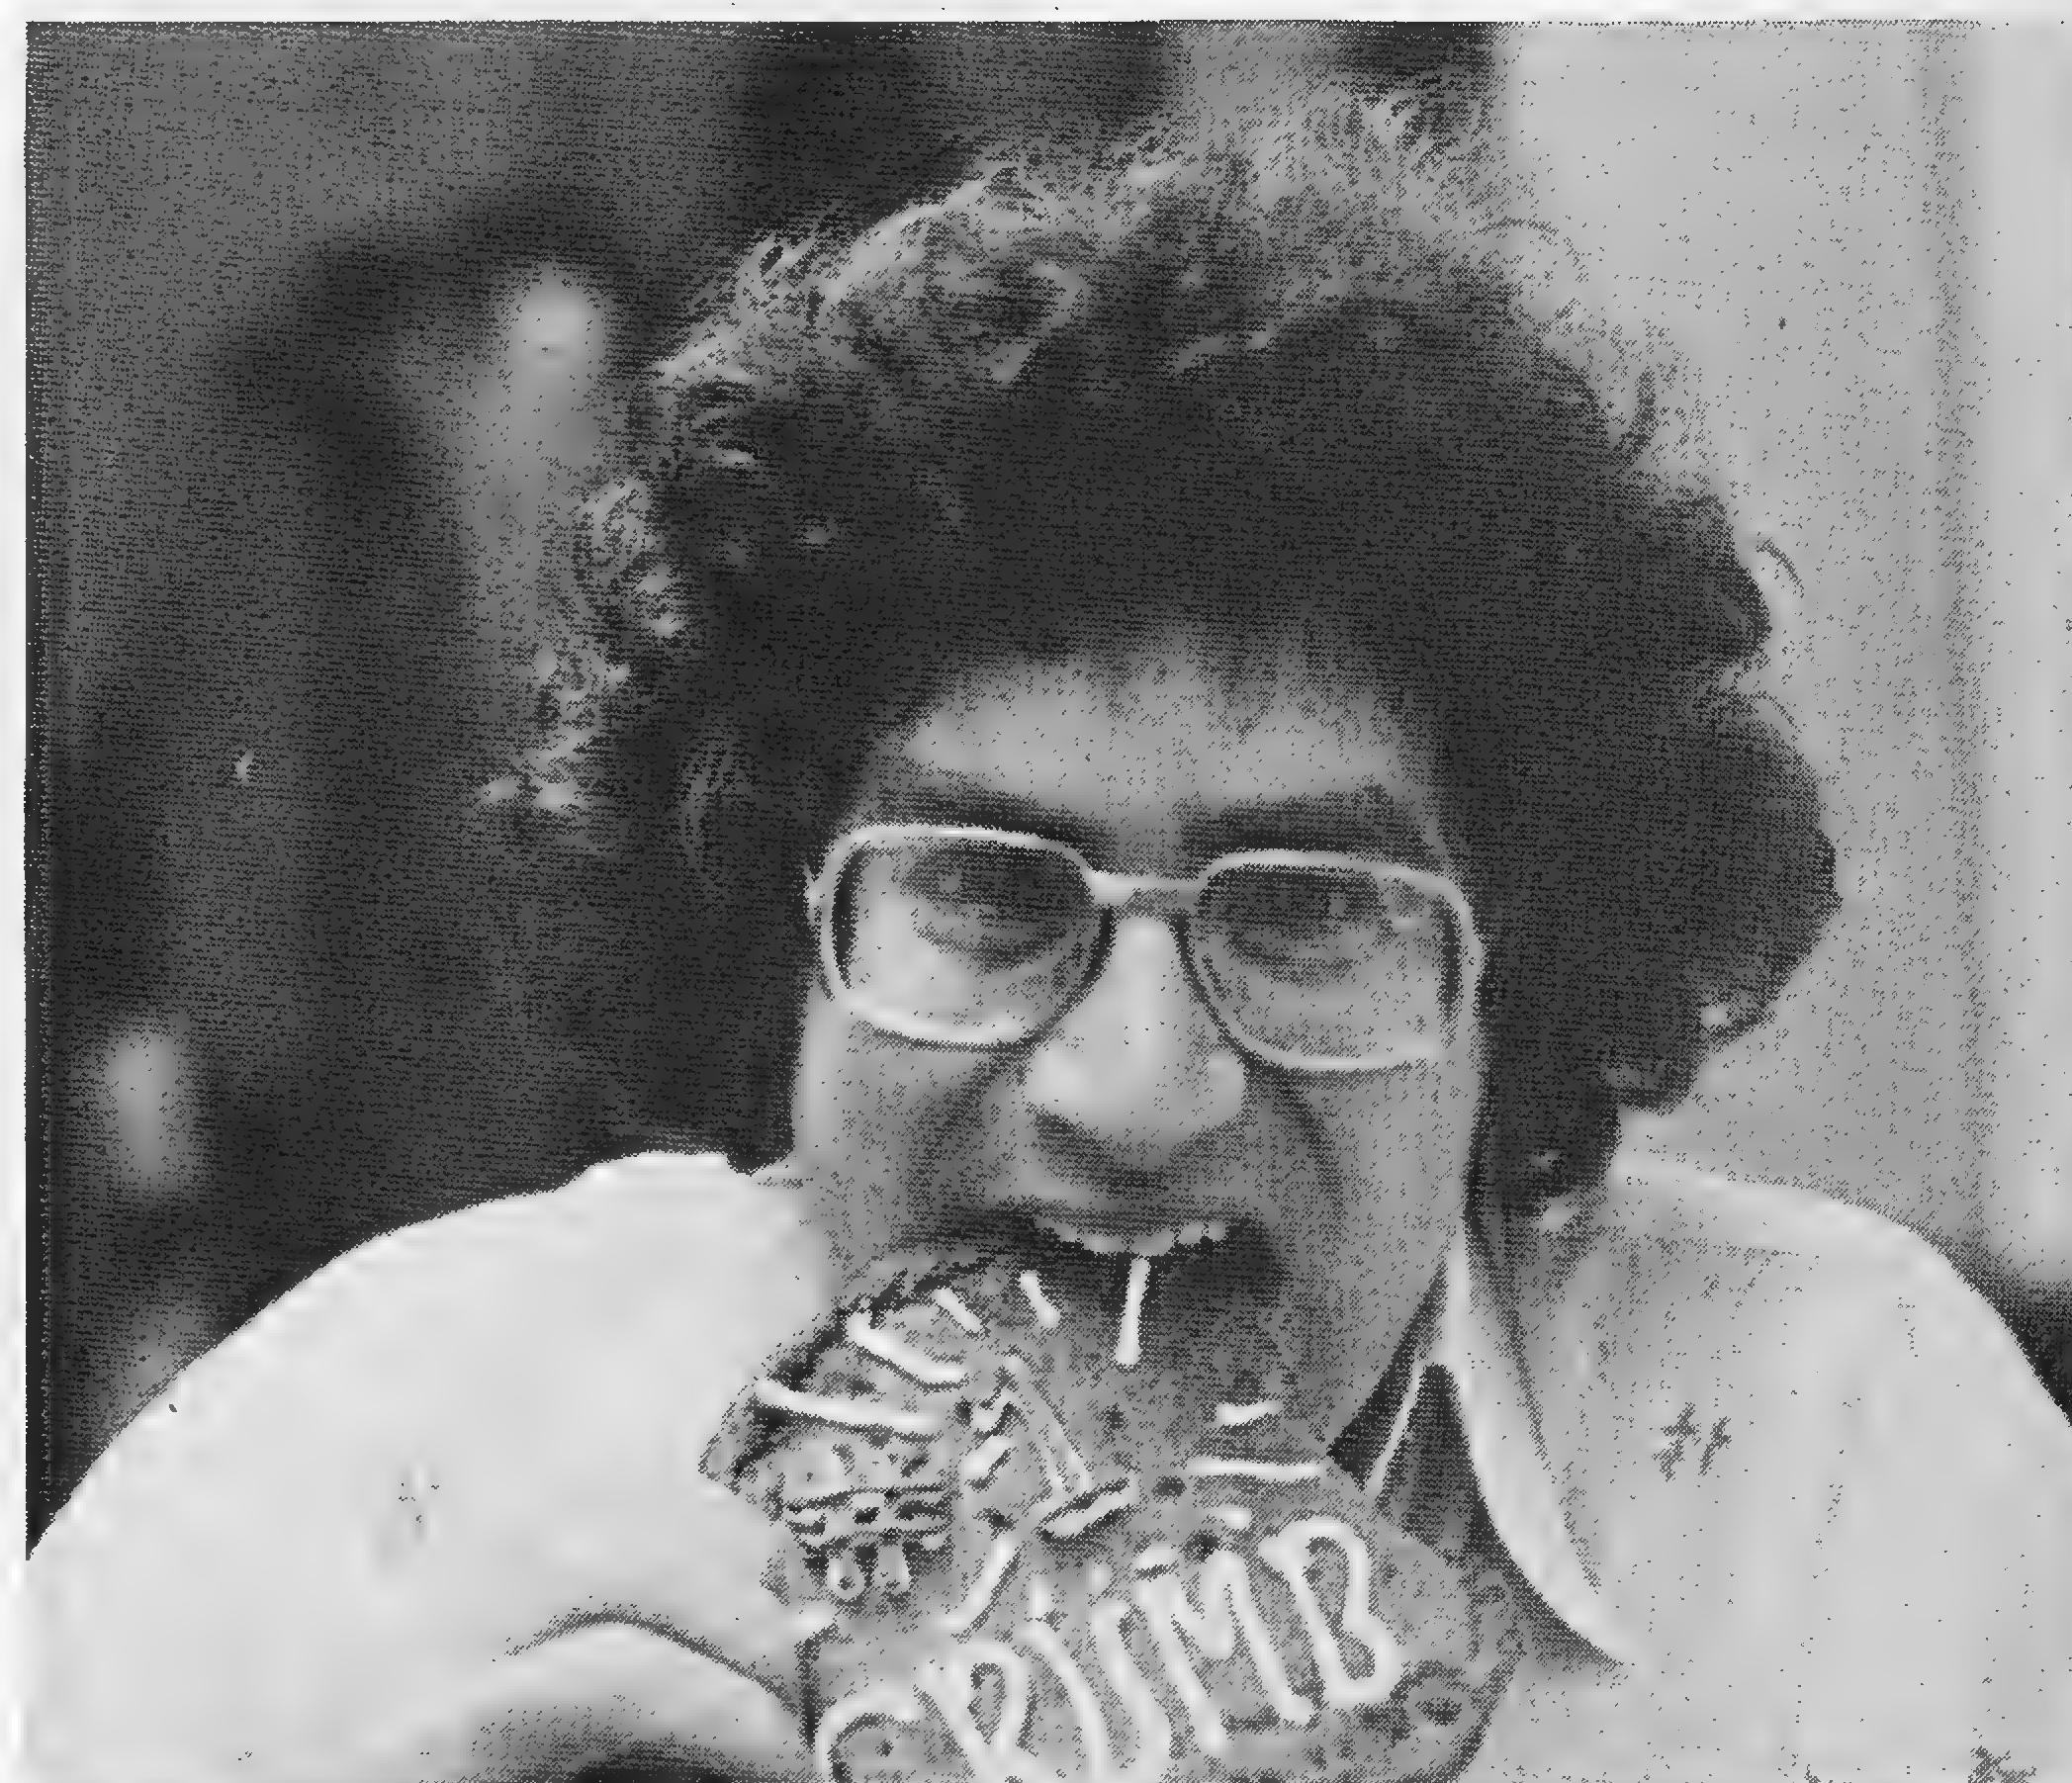

I'm signing out. I don't need a note.

Sure beats the cafeteria food.

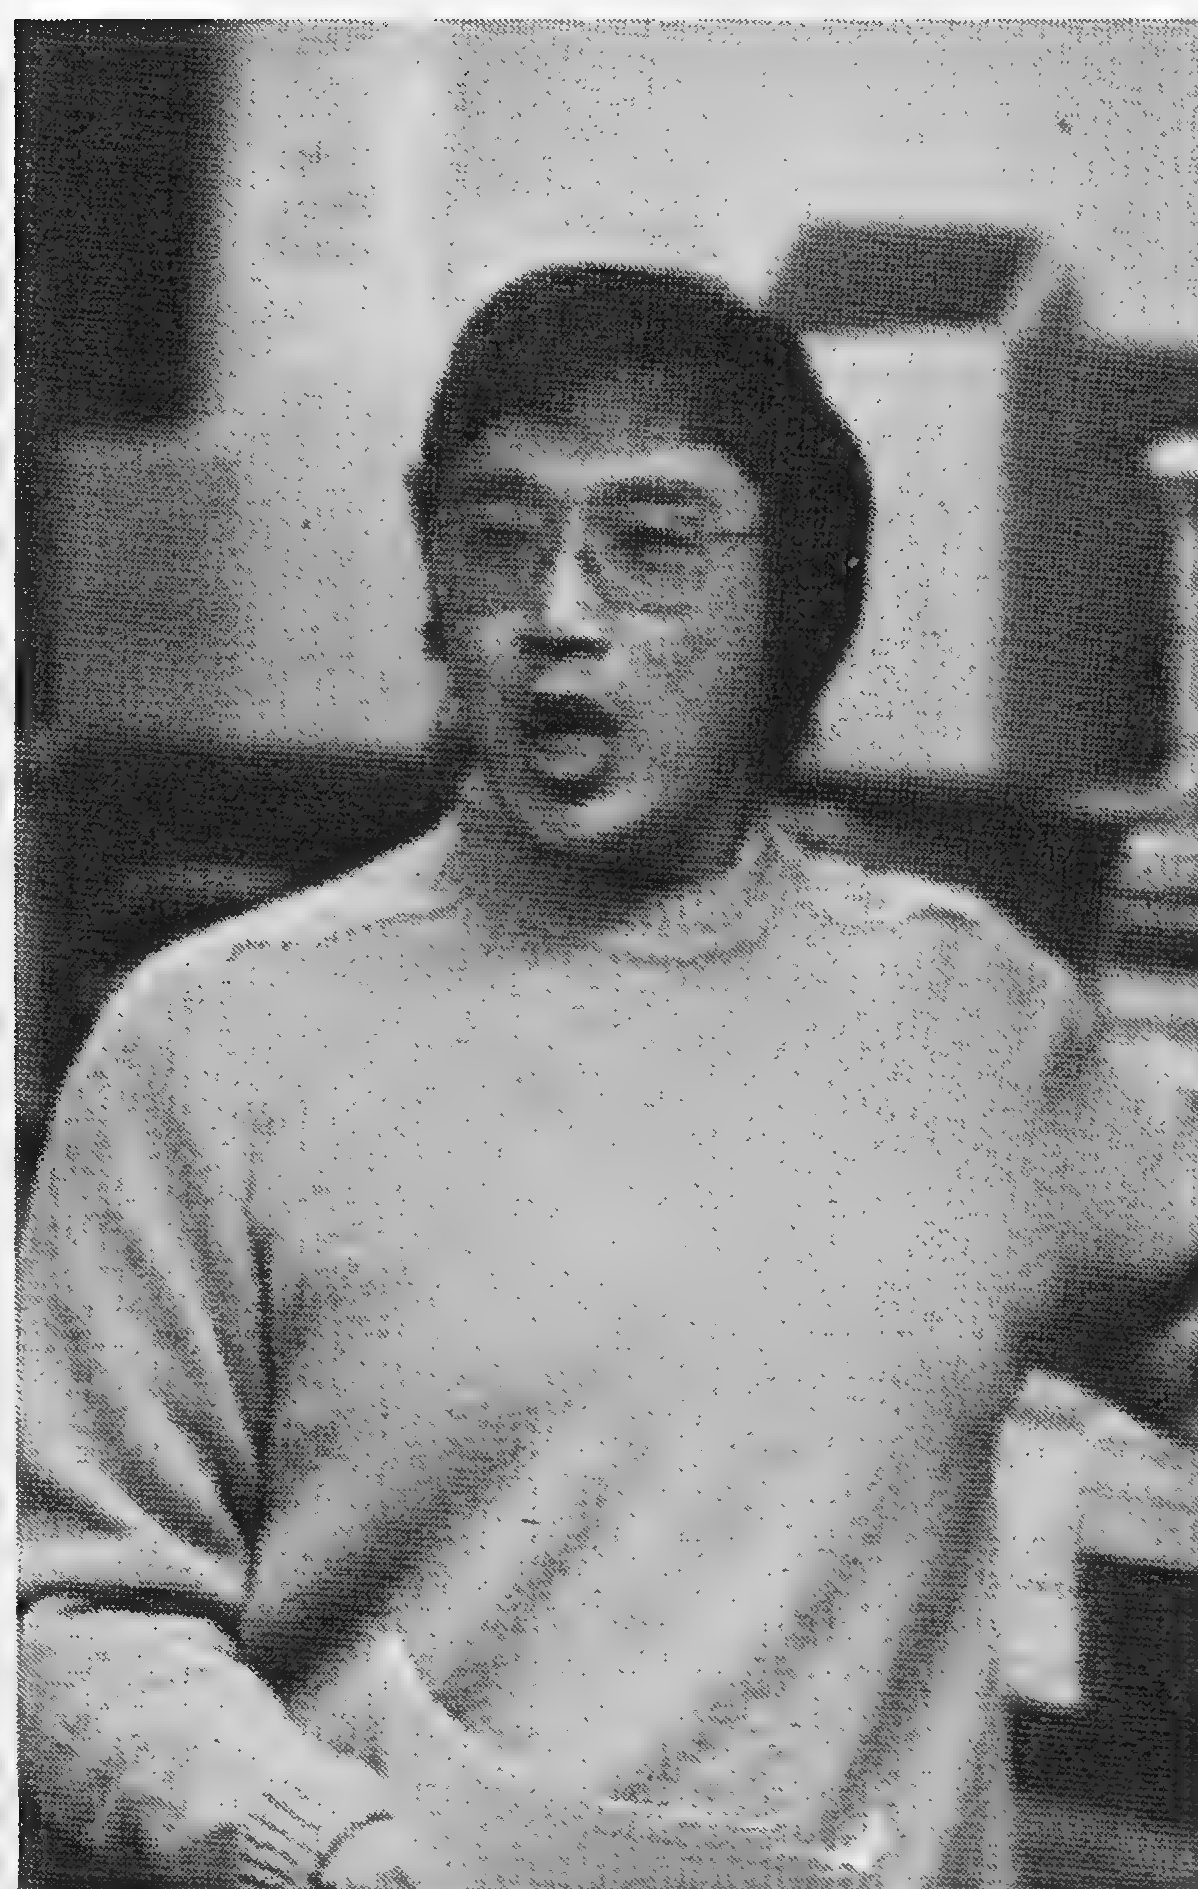

Trying out for a Puffs commercial?

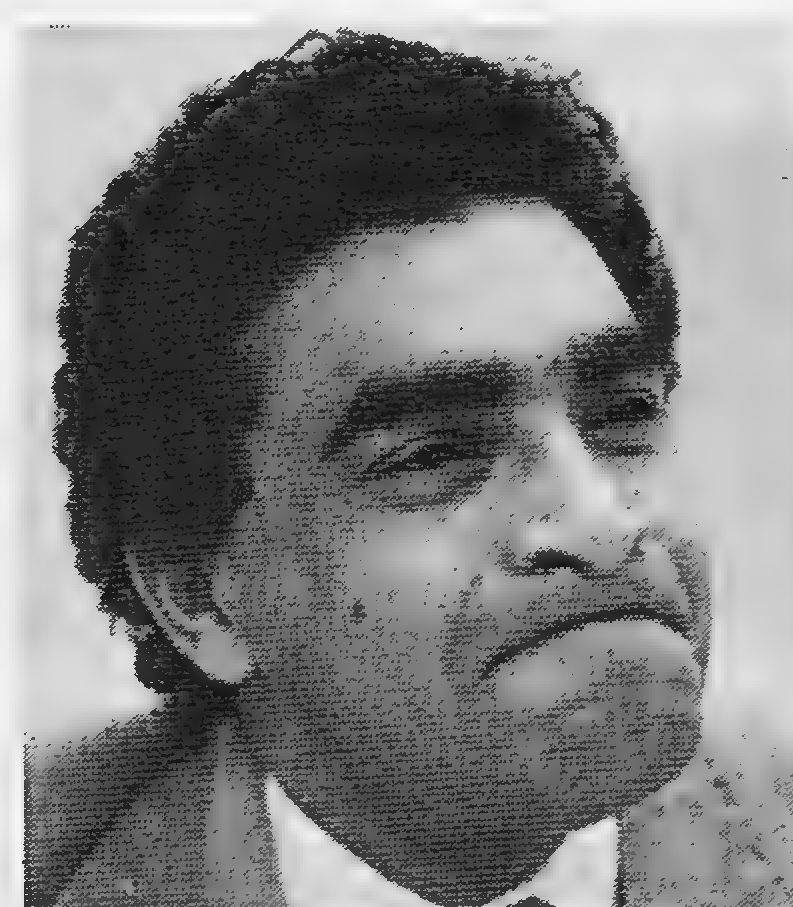

The Cookie Monster.

Oh Canada . . .

He didn't survive the honeymoon.

Mmm Mmm good!

May I have this dance?

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Mr. L. Crackower

As we begin a new decade, one cannot help but wonder how future historians will describe the decade of the seventies which is now behind us. However, let us not reminisce too long for the challenges of the eighties await us all. Set personal goals and worry not in advance whether you are capable of fulfilling them, as an honest attempt to realize them can be as important as the realization itself.

Best wishes to all of the students and staff at Westview Centennial S.S. and good luck in all your endeavours during the next decade and beyond.

Larry Crackower
Chairman of the Board

One of the greatest pleasures I have experienced in my year and a half as Trustee was attending the commencement exercises at Westview and having the opportunity to personally give congratulations to the many graduates.

Young people graduating today are facing a very different situation as far as employment is concerned. There are jobs out there but one key to getting them is a willingness to be flexible, to try something different, and to learn new skills if necessary. "What do you want to be when you grow up?" is no longer a once in a lifetime question. There will I hope, always be the opportunity for you to change your career in the future, maybe several times.

The most important thing for you to do at this stage in your life is to get to know yourself. Whether you are going on to further formal education or to employment, one of the more important things you should learn about is your own strengths and weaknesses so you can build on them. One of the very great advantages afforded to young people of today is that very few doors are ever closed permanently. Unless, of course, you don't try to open them . . .

Congratulations on completing your High School education. May "the wind be at your back" in all your future endeavours.

Peggy Gemmell

Basic Level Dept.

The Basic Level program at Westview offers students an opportunity to develop good work habits, improve academic skills, and learn how to cope with others. The many practical subjects offered help to prepare the students for employment upon graduation. Students are allowed to participate in a wide variety of out-of-class activities. This closely knit group of teachers and students participated in hockey games, baseball games and volleyball games.

The Basic Level student government is composed of elected homeform representatives. At regular meetings these representatives got valuable experience in planning; school dances, field trips, and recreational activities. They also attended a winter seminar. Trips to the Leslie Frost Outdoor Education Centre and Ottawa were very worthwhile experiences.

Juniors

It's a raid!

Caswell Award Winners

This year's members of the Junior Football Team are the "nicest" guys around. By the end of the season, the boys had won the Caswell Award which is given to the team achieving the highest degree of sportsmanship, competitive spirit and fair play. Congratulations to the team and their coaches. Good Luck next year guys!

Oh, my aching back!

VOLLEYBALL

Super Seniors!

This year our Boys Senior Volleyball Team was great! Good coaching, teamwork and effort combined to produce a team of high calibre; making 1980 the tenth consecutive year that our team has made the Playoffs! All the team members are to be congratulated for their efforts, especially Ezley Timm, Krikor Darakjian and Tony Delahaye who were chosen this year's Outstanding Players. In addition, Domenic Profiti is to be commended for his dedication despite suffering a serious injury. He was chosen the Most Improved Player. Congratulations to the team for such a successful year!

Great Girls!

Although the Girls' volleyball Teams didn't get off to the greatest start, their tremendous improvement is something of which they should be proud. The Senior Team should especially be congratulated in putting forth their best effort. Both teams played exciting games and constantly tried to perfect their skills. Keep up the good work girls!

BASKETBALL

GIRLS

GLOBE TROTTERS MOVE OVER!

Well Not Yet!

With a record of 7 victorious games, it is no wonder that the girls made it to the semifinals at the North York Championships.

Panic Time

Now you'll have to move over Globetrotters because the Junior boys went to the finals with a perfect record of 12 winning games! That's something to be proud of! They averaged 60 points per game holding 40 points in the lead against the opposition. Their moves were aggressive covering a full court with a constant tight man-to-man defence. On the offence the team ran options from the famous Drake Shuffle. Next year they'll move up to senior and promise to add alot more strength, depth and hopefully another North York Championship trophy. Way to go Junior Wildcats!

GYMNASTICS

Dedication Pays off

Although the girls' gymnastics team members did not compete this year due to the teachers' work-to-rule, our boys' team were fortunate enough to have been able to participate in several competitions throughout the year. In one such competition several members of the Westview team placed in the medal standings, capturing at least one bronze, one silver and one gold. Instead of forming a team, our girls decided to expand and form a club. Within both the boys and girls' groups, prospective members were encouraged to join for a year of practice, improvement, learning new skills and above all, fun. Each year, these groups have performed in a spring show and this year was no exception. It was a great success and congratulations are extended to club members and their coaches. Good luck next year!

Boys

WESTVIEW IN ACTION

For several years Family studies has been taking interest in a program designed to teach the young adults of Westview (12) how to deal with children. The Play School Program meets every Wednesday morning. This is part of the Family Studies exploring childhood program. The children that attend this play school are some of the children of the staff and of the community. This is a collaborative project involving Westview Centennial Dellcrest children's centre, and Seneca College's ECE program.

"1979 was declared by the United Nations to be the International Year of the Child. It had a twofold purpose: a) to make the world aware of the needs and rights of children and b) consequently improve the quality of children's lives all over the world." To celebrate the International Year of the Child in conglomeration with the Family Studies Exploring Childhood Program. The Yearbook staff presents . . .

A MASTERPIECE . . . A CHILD

Imagine a slab of clay. It is a substance, a base, yet it is only a start.

It has the possibilities . . . the qualities of being a magnificent work of art.

However . . . it is dependent on a creator . . . for . . . on its own . . . it is helpless and cannot reach its potential . . .

An artist must work with it . . . mold it . . . shape it . . . devote time and energy . . . to make it something special.

Effort, caring and time . . . are the ingredients to . . . the formula of success in all things.

Laziness, indifference and impatience . . . are the ingredients to only a brew of pain and failings.

Imagine a baby is born . . . it is flesh . . . and blood . . . it is the beginning of a nation . . .

It has within its essence . . . to surpass any form of art . . . for it is a Godly creation.

Nevertheless . . . it too needs someone to mold it . . . teach it . . . show it the way . . . to its fullest capability.

The parent must stay with the child . . . devote time . . . and energy to help him recognize his true potential.

Effort, caring and time . . . are the ingredients to . . . the formula of success in all things.

Laziness, indifference and impatience . . . are the ingredients to only a brew of pain and failings.

ATMOSPHERE

A school consists of more than just work from 9 to 3:15, with a break between to visit the caf. Of course, there are many clubs and sports which help boost the school spirit, but the atmosphere of the school also involves many field trips, birthdays, awards, studying, exams, and many more events.

On these pages we have tried to include a bit of everything, which together makes the building known as Westview Centennial Secondary School, commonly referred to as Westview, come alive. If you have participated in any of these activities, you have been enjoying one of the best aspects of school - its' Atmosphere.

YORK U SCIENCE OLYMPICS

"NAM ET IPSA SCIENTIA POTESTAS."

For the first time, Westview's top science students entered York University's annual Science Olympics. They competed with approximately fifty other schools from across Ontario. The six events in the competition included everything from guiding an electronic turtle through a maze, and calculating the number of worms which exist in the world, to hitting a target using a spring loaded cannon. Westview was led to a third place victory in the musical instrument event by the amazing "Musical Hoses". This instrument literally blew the minds of both the audience and the judges.

Overall, Westview's team was awarded a very respectable tenth place. As Mr. Wigglesworth said, "This is only one example of what these kids can do when you turn them loose."

THANK'S SIR!

“HOME AWAY FROM HOME”... YOUR LOCKER

Birthday Card?

Benchy's Litter Box

I'm Building My Own!

Got a Stepladder?

I Said Stay in There!

We have observed that students of Westview use their "Home away from home" in a variety of ways. For example; some use lockers as birthday cards, some use lockers as places to show off pictures of their favorite rock star or pin-up girl, some use lockers as a storage area, some use lockers as a bulletin board, and it would seem that some people have even tried (past tense) to live in their lockers. Lockers of Westview - Good Luck! You've served us well.

CAF CLUB

Dear Abby.

A Quiet Lunch.

Westview's caf serves many varied functions throughout the school day, some of which are planned and others which develop spontaneously.

At times it serves as a study area where one may observe, on a rare occasion, a student or two actually attempting to do just that, while others utilize the time to socialize. Frequently, it is a lovelorn, or just plain friends; a place to hide while skipping a class with the hope that the prying eyes of a teacher will miss your guilty expressions.

Little need be said about the caf during the crowded lunch periods as we are all aware of what develops during these periods.

Hopefully, the snaps on these pages will bring back many memories of the '79/'80 school year at Westview.

We don't need any more.

CONCENTRATION!!

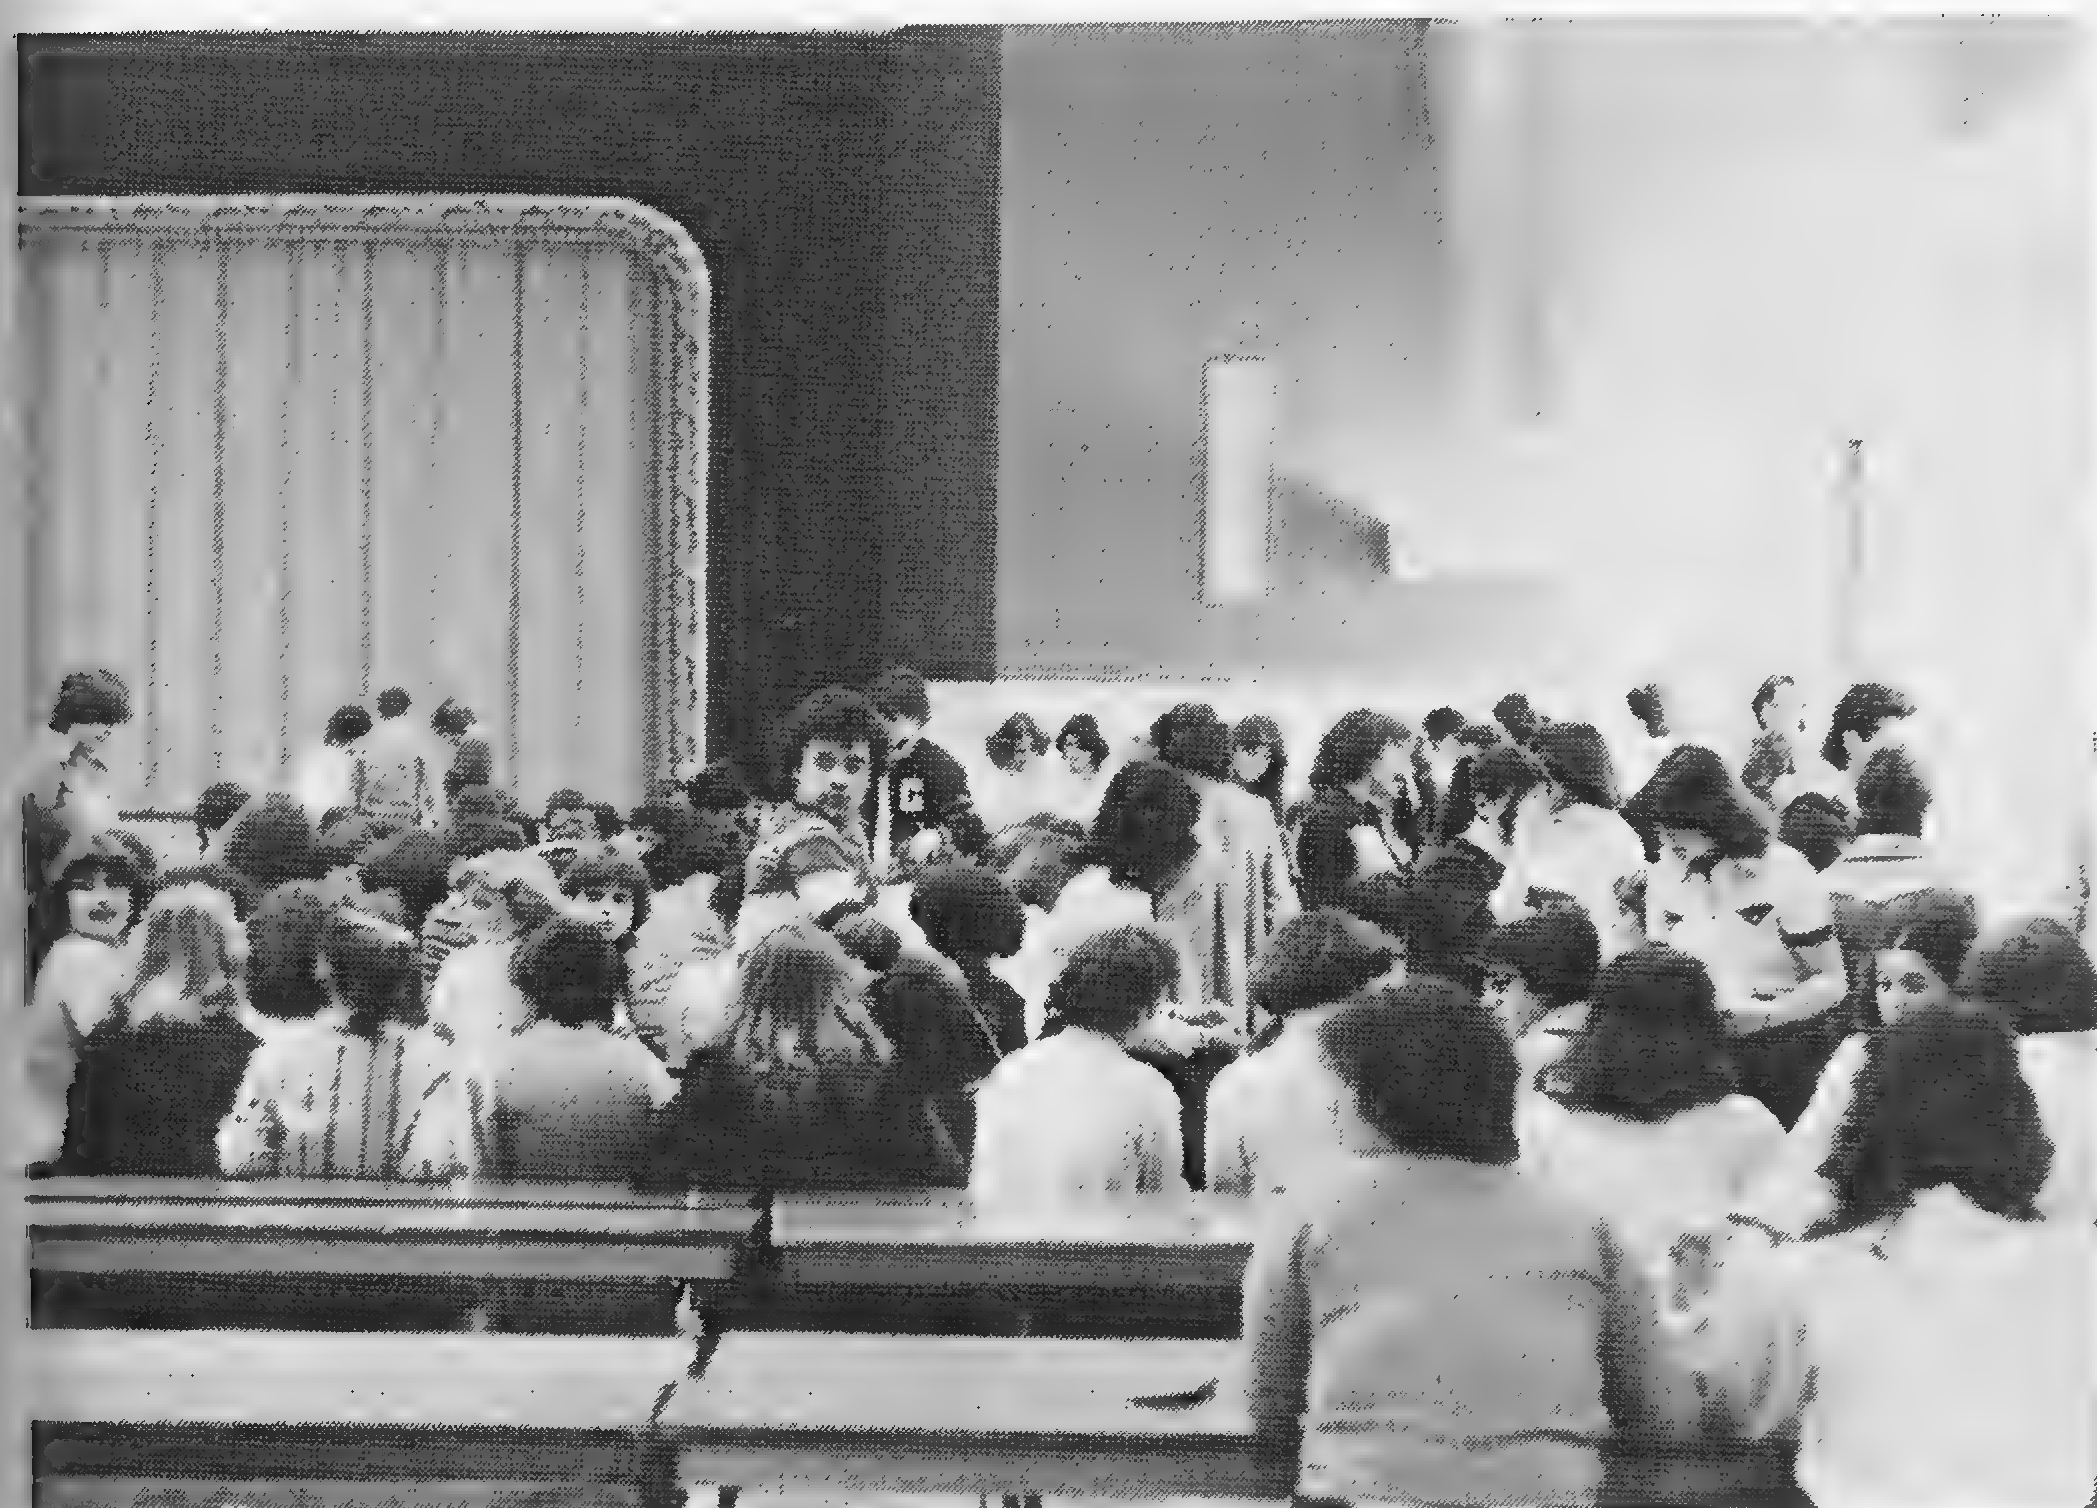

HIDE! There's a Teacher.

I'm sure there were tables here!

But we ARE studying.
